EXEMPTED MEN ORGANIZE.

1,500 Warrick County Selectives Take War Service Oath.

(Special to The Indianapolis News) BOONVILLE, Ind., February 9 .- Fifteen hundred young men, the selectives Warrick county who are not in the service, in two big meetings held here idopted a constitution and bylaws and took an oath of war service. This com-pleted the formation of the Warrick County Exempted Men's Organization, which had its beginning last November, when the county council of defense when the county council of defense called the exempted men together. This organization, which is the first of its kind in the country, was proposed by George X. Reed, county agent. He is planning to form a similar organiza-tion in every county in the United States.

States.

At the meetings here talks were made by Professor G. I. Christie, William E. Stillwell, of Evansville, and Judge Roscoe Kiper, of this city. A resolution was adopted telling the boys in the trenches that Warrick county selectives are behind them at home.

TO HAVE GREATEST NAVY.

United States Making Great Progress, Says Secretary Daniels. WASHINGTON, February 8 .- Secretary Daniels said in a speech at the National Press Club last night that the time was coming "when President Wilson's statement uttered at St. Louis would be realized, that the United States shall have incomparably the greatest navy in the world." This result, he said would be accomplished with the aid of Henry Ford and some other gentlemen. Mr. Daniels spoke briefly at a private exhibition of official pictures of the navy. He extolled the work of the navy since the war began as having been filled with glory.

"I do not believe," he said, "that any other organization in the world is so filled with the spirit of enthusiasm and team work. From the newest recruit to the youngest admiral—for we have no old admirals and the navy is a boy organization—they are eager to continue tary Daniels said in a speech at the Na-
